Complaints Policy and Procedure

1. Our Aim

Tenshi Publishing Ltd is committed to providing a quality service and working in an open and accountable way that builds trust and respect. One of the ways in which we can continue to improve our service is by listening and responding to the views of our clients and in particular by responding positively to complaints, and by putting mistakes right.

Therefore we aim to ensure that:

- making a complaint is as easy as possible.
- we treat a complaint as a clear expression of dissatisfaction with our service which calls for an immediate response.
- we deal with it promptly, politely and when appropriate, confidentially.
- we respond in the right way, for example, with an explanation or an apology, or information on any action taken.
- we learn from complaints and use them to improve our service reviewing our complaints policy and procedures annually.

We recognise that many concerns will be raised informally, and dealt with quickly.

Our aims are to:

- resolve informal concerns quickly.
- keep matters low-key.
- enable mediation between the complainant and the individual to whom the complaint has been referred.

This policy is to ensure that we provide guidelines for dealing with complaints from members of the public about our services, facilities, staff and volunteers.

2. Definitions

A complaint is defined as any expression of dissatisfaction however it is expressed. This would include complaints expressed face to face, via a phone call, in writing, via email or any other method. All staff and/or volunteers should have sufficient knowledge to be able to identify any dissatisfaction even when the word complaint is not used.

3. Purpose

All complaints are recorded, acknowledged, and sent to the relevant manager / director in order to provide feedback.

4. Complaints

The formal complaints procedure is intended to ensure that all complaints are handled fairly, consistently and wherever possible resolved to the complainant's satisfaction.

5. Responsibilities

Tenshi Publishing Ltd responsibility will be to:

- acknowledge the formal complaint in writing.
- respond within a stated period of time.
- deal reasonably and sensitively with the complaint.
- take action where appropriate.

A complainant's responsibility is to:

- bring their complaint in writing to Tenshi Publishing Ltd, normally within 8 weeks of the issue arising.
- raise concerns promptly and directly with Tenshi Publishing Ltd.
- explain the problem as clearly and as fully as possible.
- allow Tenshi Publishing Ltd a reasonable time to deal with the matter.
- recognise that some circumstances may be beyond Tenshi Publishing Ltd control.

Except in exceptional circumstances, every attempt will be made to ensure that both the complainant and Tenshi Publishing Ltd maintain confidentiality. However, the circumstances giving rise to the complaint may be such that it may not be possible to maintain confidentiality for example; in the case of a criminal offence having been committed. Should this be the case, the situation will be explained to the complainant.

7. Complaints Procedure

Written records must be made by Tenshi Publishing Ltd at each stage of the procedure.

Stage 1

In the first instance, staff member(s) or volunteers, must establish the seriousness of the complaint. An informal approach is appropriate when possible. But if concerns cannot be satisfactorily resolved informally, then the formal complaints procedure should be followed.

Stage 2

If the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the complainant should be advised that a formal complaint be made, and the following procedure should be explained to them.

- a) A formal complaint can be made either verbally or in writing. If in writing the attached form should be used. If verbally, a statement should be taken by a member of the management.
- b) In all cases, the complaint must be passed on to the director.
- c) The director, depending on the nature of the complaint, must acknowledge the complaint in writing within one week of receiving it.
- d) The director will investigate the complaint. Any conclusions reached should be discussed with the staff member involved.
